

PLA@93 Phalen Flyer

August 20, 2021

Greetings PLA Families!

Welcome back to school! This is the longest, shortest week of the year! Actually, this is the most enjoyable week for all of us as we get to see our Phalen Scholars again! Summer break is a great time to recharge but always seems to go so fast. We hope that all of you had a great summer!

For our new families, each Friday I will be sending out a Phalen Flyer update. We try to include information from the week, upcoming events and dates, and any other pertinent information. Most of the information is for the general school population, but may also be specific to grade level. Much of this information can also be found in individual teacher's newsletters. You can expect to receive those every Tuesday.
